The erection and removal of all Political Signs shall be the joint responsibility of the owner of the property upon which the sign is placed, the owner of the sign, and the candidate for whom such sign was placed. Each such person shall be jointly and severally liable for any violation of the terms and conditions of this permit and for any hazard to the general public which is caused by or created by reason of the construction and/or maintenance of the sign.

In such event, and without waiving any other remedies available in equity or law, Flagler County shall dispose of such signs as it deems appropriate and shall bear no liability for damages to, or the disposal of, any such signs. The Registrant/Candidate by completing this permit application hereby consents to the foregoing conditions.
